INVITATIONS

Dear Colleagues

On behalf of the Critical Care Society of Southern Africa (CCSSA), it would be a delight to have you join us for the 11th Congress of the World Federation of Societies of Intensive and Critical Care Medicine (WFSICCM).

The CCSSA represents the biggest subspecialty medical society in the region and probably on the continent.

It is unique in that its membership covers medical specialists in the field, intensive care nurses, as well as allied medical professionals who ply their trade in Intensive Care Units. The Society is an extremely proactive one and its membership includes several internationally recognised authorities.

A major aim of the Society is to improve patient care and outcome, as well as to stimulate relevant research in a congenial fashion – all aspects of which will be integral components of the meeting. The CCSSA has a proud tradition of hosting meetings of outstanding academic standard, together with wonderful social interaction.

South Africa's favourite son and one of the world's most loved statesmen, Nelson Mandela, once wrote: "We pass through this world but once and opportunities you miss will never be available to you again"

Don't miss this opportunity! We look forward to welcoming you in South Africa!

Warmest regards and best wishes.

Mervyn Mer
President: Critical Care Society of Southern Africa (CCSSA)

Dear Colleagues

The gathering of thousands of delegates from all over the world to deliberate over various issues pertaining to Critical Care could not happen in a more apt place than South Africa, home to the Rainbow Nation.

We welcome you to be part of the 11th Congress of the World Federation of Societies of Intensive and Critical Care Medicine which will take place in Durban, South Africa between 28 August and 1 September 2013.

South Africa has long been a centre of excellence in the field of Intensive and Critical Care in Africa. Our Scientific Committee has combined the local talent with a list of international experts to create what promises to be an exceptional programme. The focus of the scientific programme will be "Critical Care for all - providing more for less". We hope to highlight the need for rational utilization of precious critical care resources, thus making it accessible to as many of our patients as possible.

This will undoubtedly be one of the best medical conferences in 2013. It will provide an unprecedented opportunity to learn more about critical care in different contexts. It will allow for engagement with the international market place in respect of innovations. It will entice you to enjoy the superb array of social functions that are being planned to maintain Durban's reputation as the place where the fun never sets.

For those that will be visiting us for the first time, we are confident that you will leave totally impressed. For those that are returning, you know what to expect.

See you in Durban!

Sats Bhagwanjee (Seattle) and Dean Gopalan
Co-Chairs: South African Organising Committee

Critical Care for all - Providing more for less

11th Congress of the World Federation of Societies of Intensive and Critical Care Medicine

Dear Colleagues

On behalf of the Executive Committee and Council of the World Federation of Societies of Intensive and Critical Care Medicine may I extend a warm welcome to our 11th World Congress. It also gives me great pleasure to invite medical professionals and industry colleagues to participate in this major event.

This is the first occasion in our history that the World Congress has been hosted on the continent of Africa. The excellence of the scientific program and faculty of speakers, combined with the natural and cultural attractions of South Africa will make this a unique opportunity to share experiences and knowledge in intensive and critical care medicine. This will be a memorable event and one which should not be missed.

The central role of the World Federation is to promote the highest standards of care for the critically ill patient and the 11th World Congress will be an important step towards the achievement of this goal. We look forward to your participation in helping us to create a lasting legacy which will drive the growth and development of intensive and critical care medicine in Africa. Please take advantage of the discounts for early registration which are available before 31 March 2013.

I look forward to welcoming you to Durban in August 2013 and to your contribution to "Critical Care for All".

Edgar Jimenez
President: World Federation of Societies of Intensive and Critical Care Medicine (WFSICCM)

Dear Colleagues

It is my distinct pleasure, on behalf of the World Federation of Critical Care Nurses (WFCCN), to invite you to join in the activities and international networking opportunities by attending the 11th Congress of the World Federation of Societies of Intensive and Critical Care Medicine. The WFCCN is pleased to pledge our joint support and collaboration for the Critical Care Congress which will take place from 28 August - 1 September 2013, in Durban South Africa. The theme of the 2013 Congress "Critical Care for All" emphasizes the importance of coming together to celebrate and participate in this most important meeting for critical care practitioners. The Durban Congress will highlight advances in critical care

www.criticalcare2013.com

medicine practice, research, and education and focus on the necessity for inter-professional input to advance patient care and promote best patient outcomes. The WFCCN, with 40 international country members representing over 400,000 critical care nurses worldwide, is proud to co-host the Congress. We encourage critical care nurses, doctors, allied health professionals, and industry partners to join with us to experience what promises to be a great venue for learning, sharing, and strategizing to further advance critical care throughout the world.

Ruth Kleinpell PhD RN FCCM
President of World Federation of Critical Care Nurses (WFCCN)

Dear Colleagues

On behalf of the Executive and members of the World Federation of Pediatric Intensive and Critical Care Societies (WFPICCS) I would like to extend a warm welcome to you to attend the WFSICCM World Congress in Durban in 2013.

It gives me great pleasure to invite colleagues to participate and join us at this major event. This congress is the product of robust partnerships spawned by the recognition of the importance of care of critically ill children regardless of location and resources. The excellence of the scientific programme and faculty of speakers combined with the beauty and attractions of South Africa will provide a unique opportunity to share experiences and knowledge in intensive and critical care medicine. This will be a memorable event and one which should not be missed.

The central role of WFPICCS is to promote the highest standards of care for all critically ill children worldwide.

This congress is a great opportunity to connect with colleagues and will be an important step towards the achievement of this goal.

I look forward to welcoming you to Durban in August 2013.

Niranjan Kissoon
President of World Federation of Paediatric Intensive and Critical Care Societies (WFPICCS)

Critical Care for all - Providing more for less

CONGRESS FORMAT

Introduction

The program has been designed to present the latest scientific information and to deal with the challenge of providing more for less. The latter objective will be addressed by addressing critical care realities in high and low income countries. This will also be the first World Congress with active participation of InFact (International Forum of Acute Care Trialists) and the GSA (Global Sepsis Alliance).

The Durban 2013 scientific programme starts on Wednesday 28 August and closes on Sunday 1 September 2013. The meeting will cover the entire spectrum of critical care disciplines in alignment with the central theme of "Critical Care for All".

The scientific component of the program will focus on key issues in critical care in a format that will incorporate plenary lectures, thematic sessions, cutting-edge Meet-the-Expert sessions with interactive audience participation, interactive debates, clinical ward rounds, round table meetings, hands-on workshops, industry sponsored symposia and the presentation of original scientific research in the form of free oral communications and poster presentations.

Plenary Sessions

"State of the Art" presentations by leading experts in the field. These unopposed sessions will constitute a regular feature of meeting.

Thematic Sessions

Presentations by well-known authorities and experts on related topics. Each session will comprise of 4 lectures and a discussion period on the theme. These sessions will run in parallel.

Clinical Ward Rounds

An interactive session which includes a case presentation to a clinical expert.

Meet-the-Experts Session

These 90 minute sessions are designed to address cutting-edge issues by a panel of clinical experts. This session will focus on stimulating audience participation and robust debate.

Workshops

Practical hands-on sessions which will be restricted to a limited number of participants.

The Congress Organising Secretariat reserves the right to cancel workshops in the case of insufficient number of registered participants.

www.criticalcare2013.com

Abstract Presentations

The Scientific Program Committees regards this as a key component of the Congress. The presentation of research studies communicating results is highly appreciated.

Abstracts have to be submitted to the Organising Secretariat using the online submission form by 28 February 2013. Abstracts received after this date will not be accepted. Please refer to the Abstracts section (www.criticalcare2013.com) for details.

Oral Communication

A selection of the best abstract submissions will be presented orally on Friday 30 August 2013.

Poster Sessions

Posters will be displayed in the poster areas for the duration of the Congress. Following the oral communication sessions there will be an unopposed session dedicated to Poster Ward Rounds. This will entail a short presentation and discussion period.

Awards

Submitted abstracts will be reviewed and rated to determine award winners.

Industry Sponsored Symposia

Educational sessions focusing on contemporary critical care issues supported by Industry.

ABSTRACTS

Submission deadline: 28 February 2013

Invitation to submit

The Scientific Programme Committee of the 11th Congress of the World Federation of Societies of Intensive and Critical Care Medicine invites the submission of abstracts describing original work or case reports from any field of critical care. All abstracts must relate to unpublished work. Any abstracts related to previously published work (including via the internet) will not be accepted.

Submission

Abstracts must be submitted only via the link on the website www.criticalcare2013.com

Accepted submissions will be presented as posters. A selection comprising the best abstract submissions will be chosen for presentation as oral communications. Once accepted, detailed instructions regarding the presentations will follow. Abstracts submission is subject to the registration of the presenting author (A User ID and a password will be created to access the online submission form). Abstracts submitted by fax or email will be ineligible for consideration.

Please note that the submitting author is considered also to be the presenting author. No modification of the abstract can be made after submission. It is the authors' responsibility to submit abstracts in a perfect order with no errors in spelling and grammar. The same author may submit more than one abstract. Please do not submit multiple copies of the same abstract. Abstract submission indicates acceptance of and compliance with the rules outlined in this Abstract section. Failure to adhere to these rules will result in rejection of the abstract.

Work by clinical fellows will receive special consideration if it is indicated in the submission process. The deadline for all submissions is 17:00 (Standard South African Time) on 28 February 2013. No extensions or late-breaking abstracts will be permitted.

Reviewing/Selection

All abstracts will be sent to 2 reviewers. A third reviewer will be invited if there is a disagreement regarding acceptance of the abstract. Your abstract may be considered for an award. The abstract will (depending on the nature of the study) be scored on the following criteria which may include:

- Scientific merit of the abstract
- Adequate sample size
- Statistical analysis
- Analysis of qualitative data
- Adherence to instructions, and
- Originality of work

The reviewers will evaluate the abstract and will return one of the following results:

- Accepted
- Accepted - Subject to changes being made
- Rejected

Case reports will be accepted if approved by the academic committee but may not be eligible for a prize or inclusion in the abstracts published. The Scientific Programme Committee will communicate the results via email to the contact/presenting author on 15 April 2013. Where an abstract is 'accepted subject to changes', the Scientific Programme Committee will send to the presenting author, details of the changes required. All amended abstracts must be received by 24:00 South African Standard Time 22 April 2013 for a second assessment by 2 reviewers, after which a final result (of Accepted or Rejected) for the amended abstracts will be returned by 10 May 2013.

The final result will be decided by the Scientific Programme Committee. The decision of the Scientific Programme Committee will be final. If you do not receive an email response by 16 April 2013, please check the status of your abstract with Kerry Firmani from the Congress Secretariat (Kerryf@turnergroup.co.za)

Acceptance

Registration fees for the presenting author will not be waived. Registration and the payment of registration fees need to be confirmed by 25 May 2013.

Presentation

The Scientific Programme Committee reserves the right to decide on the final form of presentation. Submission of an abstract constitutes a commitment by the presenting author(s) to attend the Congress and present the findings. Expenses associated with the preparation, submission and presentation of an abstract are the responsibility of the presenting author(s). If accepted, the presenting author(s) is required to pay all fees associated with the conference, including but not limited to: travel, accommodation and registration. In the event that the presenting author is unable to attend the Congress one of the co-authors may present instead. However, we regret that the registration fee for the presenting author cannot be refunded and the co-author will need to register separately.

Publication

Abstracts accepted will be collected in a CD-ROM to be distributed to Congress participants. WFSICCM does not edit or proof read abstracts. Abstracts will be reproduced as submitted. It is therefore the authors' responsibility to check the linguistic accuracy and submit abstracts without errors in spelling or grammar. Selected accepted abstracts will be printed as submitted in the Journal of Critical Care. Please note that the abstract size may, however, be reduced.

Withdrawing

Abstracts may be withdrawn by completing the withdrawal form by 25 May 2013. This will remove the abstract from the programme and the abstract supplement.

Scientific Standards

By submitting an abstract, the presenting author(s) confirms that:

- the abstract has not been submitted to any other meeting,
- the abstract displays data that has not been published
- the scientific material found within the abstract will not be published other than in abstract form prior to the Congress and
- the work described is original to the authors and was conducted in accordance with current ethical standards and regulations in biomedical research (Declaration of Helsinki, guiding principles for biomedical research involving animals recommended by WHO)
- where required the research has been approved by an institutional ethics review board and that
- participants have given their informed consent,
- all authors have consented to be included as co-authors, have read and approved the abstract and its contents, and agree with the results stated, that all authors are acknowledged of and agree with the abstract submission rules, and permit the abstract, if accepted, to be published as submitted,
- the authors agree that WFSICCM may publish abstracts in the Journal of Critical Care and may record the presentation for subsequent use as it deems appropriate.

Authors must also indicate whether they have any financial agreement with any organisation or company involved in the research. Grant acknowledgements must be indicated as well. Note: All visuals of participants/patients shown must have informed consent. Speakers must declare conflict of interest before starting their presentations.

Delegates are requested to turn their mobile phones off when entering speaker venues. Failure to do so may impede access to some areas.

Smoking Policy

Smoking is not allowed within the Congress venue except in designated smoking areas.

GENERAL INFORMATION

South Africa

We welcome you with open arms, warm smiles and are excited to have you on our shores, in our homes and with the traditional South Africa "braai".

Experience our hospitality wherever you go and get in touch with our wide variety of fascinating cultures and local traditions. Our people are ready to show you our country's natural wonders, draw you into the rhythm and soul of Africa, give you close encounters with our regal wildlife and take you on an unforgettable journey through our ancient and recent past.

Durban

Durban is an extraordinary city, the most culturally diverse in Southern Africa, with a rich and colourful history and a vibrant and wonderful present. The biggest and busiest city in the province of KwaZulu-Natal (although not the capital), Durban features vastly different coastal regions and landscapes, with the most spectacular mountain range in the country and the oldest game reserve in Africa not far away.

It is also known as the friendliest city in South Africa, thanks to the great warmth and openness of its people and the laid-back lifestyle that everyone here enjoys.

Durban Beaches

Durban has glorious sandy beaches that disappear into the Indian Ocean where the water (even in winter) has an average temperature of 19°C (66°F)

Durban is a magnet for sun worshippers and surfers and has been listed as one of the world's top 10 family beach holiday destinations by Lonely Planet's Travel with Children. There are shark nets in the sea off the main beaches and the latter are patrolled from sunrise to sunset by lifeguards.

A Long Promenade that's Ideal for Walks and Bike Rides

Extending from uShaka Beach in the south to Country Club Beach in the north, Durban's beachfront Promenade offers visitors an uninterrupted 10 km of breath-taking sea views, as well as a wide selection of restaurants and pubs, open-air entertainment and nearby craft markets.

There's Always Something to do in Durban

Long lazy days spent on the beach. Sultry nights outdoors breathing in the salty sea air. Get-togethers with friends in restaurants that offer the best in seafood, curries, steaks or traditional African fare. A wealth of nightclubs and bars. Heritage trails where you can see where Mahatma Gandhi lived, where Nelson Mandela cast his historic vote in South Africa's first democratic elections, experience township life with its taverns and fortune-telling sangomas, or gain some insight into Zulu culture. Some of the biggest shopping malls in the Southern Hemisphere. Art galleries. Arts and crafts markets. Concerts. Mountain biking. Birding. Kite surfing. Durban has it all.

Interesting Facts

Location: 29°53'S 31°03'E; on the east coast of South Africa, in the province of KwaZulu-Natal (KZN)

Car Hire

The roads in Durban are in good condition and well sign-posted. Remember, in South Africa, you drive on the left hand side of the road! There are a number of reputable car hire companies operating in Durban.

- An International Driver's Permit carried in conjunction with your national driving license is recommended and must be printed or authenticated in English.
- If your license does not have a photograph on it, then you must also carry your passport with you so that you can be identified as the legal holder of the driving license.
- Please note that the car hire companies might have different regulations regarding the length of time that you need to have held a driving license, so it is advisable to check with your car hire company about their requirements.
- Always make sure documentation is carried with you at all times when driving.

A preferred supplier has been appointed for the congress. To obtain a quote please send an email to lucilleh@turnersgroup.co.za with the following details:

1. Mileage required (100km per day; 200km per day or unlimited mileage per day),
2. Collection and drop off point and dates.

Shuttle Transport

Shuttle Transport will be offered to all registered participants and registered accompanying persons; between appointed hotels and the International Convention Centre for the duration of the congress. A schedule of times and details will be displayed in the hotel foyer and at the convention centre.

Taxis

Metered taxis are common, safe and relatively inexpensive. These taxis will be operating in the key Congress zones, including the airport, beachfront, city centre and other accommodation and entertainment nodes within Durban. Registered metered taxis are clearly marked with an official eThekweni Transport Authority decal, so that you can be assured of the quality and safety of the service that you are getting from your taxi.

Passports and Visas

Every visitor to South Africa must have a valid passport. Passport holders from more than 80 countries, including USA, Canada, UK, Japan and the EU can visit South Africa without a visa. Information regarding visas can be obtained from your travel agent or the South African diplomatic or consular representative in your area. Passports should have at least 2 completely empty pages otherwise entry may be denied. Passports must be valid for at least 6 months after your intended date of departure. Delegates requiring visas, and who intend taking tours to neighbouring Southern African countries, are advised to secure a multiple entry visa. Tourists must satisfy immigration officers that they have the means of support for the duration of their stay in the country and return/onward tickets. Visas cannot be obtained on arrival. A list of countries that currently do not require a visa can be found on the "Applying for a South African visa" page of the SA Government website: www.dha.gov.za

If required, upon request, the Congress Secretariat is willing to send you a letter of invitation. It should be understood that this letter will be sent only to help participants to raise travel funds or to obtain a visa. A letter of invitation is not a commitment on the part of the organisers to provide any financial support. Please note that only registered delegates who have paid their Congress registration fees will be issued with a letter of invitation.

Currency / Banks / Exchange

The unit of currency in South Africa is the South African Rand (ZAR) and is indicated with a capital R so that, for example, three Rand and fifty cents would be written R3.50. South Africa has a decimal currency system with one Rand equalling 100 cents.

Rand notes denominations are R200, R100, R50, R20, and R10 and of the coins are R5, R2, R1, 50c, 20c, 10c and 5c. The following exchange rates were applicable at time of sending out this document.

1 Euro = ZAR 10.50

1 United State Dollar = ZAR 8.50

Facilities for cashing traveler's cheques are available at banks (operating hours are Monday - Friday 09:00 – 15:30, Saturdays 08:30– 11:00) and at most hotels. Banks are closed on Sundays. Foreign exchange agencies are open during the week and on Saturdays. Automatic teller machines (ATM) are open 24 hours and are located at most banks as well as at the Congress Venue. International credit cards (Visa, Diners Club, MasterCard and American Express) are accepted at the majority of hotels, restaurants and shops.

Price Guideline

Prices will vary from place to place, but the following schedule is an indication of what delegates might expect to pay:

Tea or Coffee
ZAR 15.00	€ 1.50	US$ 2.00
Restaurant Meal
ZAR 160.00	€ 15.00	US$ 20.00

ZAR 10.00	€ 1.00	US$ 1.00
Sandwich
ZAR 25.00	€ 2.50	US$ 3.00

ATM

ATMs are located all around the city. They can also be used for cash advances on major credit cards such as MasterCard or VISA.

Credit cards

Major credit cards are accepted in most hotels, stores and restaurants.

Electricity Supply / Power

The electricity supply in South Africa is 220 - 240 volts, 50 Hz. The connection for appliances is a round three-pin plug. Most hotels provide dual-voltage two-pin razor sockets (100-120 volts and 220-240 volts).

Health / Insurance

There are no compulsory vaccination requirements for persons entering South Africa although a certificate for yellow fever is required if you are entering from certain South American or sub-Saharan African countries.

Certain parts of the country, mainly in the north, have been designated as malaria risk areas. If you intend travelling to one of these areas, it is essential that you take prophylaxis before arrival and whilst in the area. Protective clothing and insect repellents should also be used. Durban is a malaria risk-free area.

South African doctors and dentists are highly trained professionals and hospitals are well equipped.

Participants are requested to make their own arrangements with respect to health insurance prior to departure and consult their local general practitioner for personal expert advice.

For international travel and health advisories please visit the WHO website at www.who.int/ith or www.cdc.org

It is safe to drink tap water throughout South Africa. However, for those who prefer bottled mineral water, this is readily available in various stores.

Smoking is prohibited by law in most public buildings in South Africa (airports, Durban International Convention Centre, restaurants etc.) except in designated smoking areas.

Anyone requiring medical attention while in the Convention Centre should report to the information or registration desk for direction.

Safety

For those participants who have not previously visited South Africa, or Durban, and are concerned about personal safety, we wish to assure all visitors that Durban is a great place to visit but like any major city, it has good and bad areas. Common sense will ensure a trouble free and enjoyable congress and vacation. The area around the International Convention Centre, Durban and adjacent hotels is safe and well monitored at all times but we advise that you do not walk alone after dark in unpopulated streets. Ostentatious displays of wealth should be avoided at all times.

During the Congress, the information desk at the ICC and your hotel's concierge will be able to assist you with information on places to visit and the appropriate means of transport.

Shopping

Durban is home to many numerous world-class shopping malls, most of which include big chain stores and smaller boutiques as well as banking facilities, restaurants, coffee shops and movie theatres. Depending on their locations, some malls also offer curio shops. Most malls offer safe, pay-per-hour parking.

Most shops in the city centre and suburbs open between 08:00 and 17:00 to 17:30. Shops in major shopping malls open at 09:00 and close at 19:00 or later, including on Sundays and most public holidays. Government agencies still keep to traditional weekday only hours. Most banks close at 15:30, and have limited Saturday morning opening times. Muslim-owned businesses close at noon on Fridays and re-open at 13:00.

Major Shopping Malls include: Gateway Shopping Experience and the Pavilion Shopping Centre.

A visit to one of Durban's markets is a great way to pick-up gifts and souvenirs from a wide variety of local designers, artists and entrepreneurs.

Vat/Tax Refunds

Vat of 14% is levied on nearly all goods and services. Foreign tourists may claim back VAT paid on items that will be taken out of the country. Original tax invoices, foreign passport, plus all of the items on which a refund is claimed, must be presented at the VAT Refund Administration Office or an appointed RSA Customs and Excise Official on departure from South Africa, and the total VAT on these items will be refunded.

Tipping

Gratuities are expected in South Africa. A guideline for visitors is the following: Airport porters ZAR5.00 per item, taxis 10% of fare, waitrons in restaurants 10% of bill.

Telecommunications

Mobile phones: Referred to locally as 'cell phones'. The main areas of South Africa are covered by all networks. You can use a GSM/tri-band phone from outside the country in South Africa, if you arranged for international roaming before leaving home.

Public phones are either coin or card operated.

International telephone dialling code is 00 + the country code when dialling another country from South Africa.

It is also possible to rent a cell phone at the airport or from a cell phone provider in the city.

ACCOMPANYING PERSONS' PROGRAMME

An interesting choice of guided tours has been prepared for all participants and accompanying persons. Here are some of the 'must see' attractions. For detailed itineraries; please visit the official website.

Complimentary Durban Orientation Tour for Registered Accompanying Persons

(Limited seats available: First Come First Serve)

Date: Daily, please indicate your preferred departure date on the registration form.

Time: 09:00 – 12:00

Departure: ICC Main Entrance (on the ramp)

Itinerary: Commence your tour with a drive along the Marine Parade and enjoy spectacular views of the Indian Ocean and golden beaches. Continue along the Victoria Embankment and visit the Vasco Da Gama clock, the Dick King statue and then drive via the Durban Harbour and sugar terminal and back into the city centre to the historical site of the first settlement, Farewell Square. Continue into a part of the city which is popular for trading, and enjoy a visit to the Victoria Street market, well known for its colourful spices and curios - a great place to bargain... Visit the Botanical Gardens where sub-tropical plants and orchids create a tranquil oasis in the middle of the city and enjoy tea and scones. After this refreshment stop, and a pleasant walk, continue to the Berea which is a beautiful residential part of Durban with fantastic views overlooking the city and our new Moses Mabhida Stadium, before returning to the ICC.

Complimentary Valley of 1000 Hills Tour for Registered Delegates

(Limited seats available: First Come First Serve)

Date: Daily, please indicate your preferred departure date on the registration form.

Time: 09:00 – 12:30 or 13:30 – 17:00

Departure: ICC Main Entrance (on the ramp)

Itinerary: The first spectacular glimpse of the Valley with its literally thousands of hills is opposite Heidi's Farm Stall at Botha's Hill. At the Assegai Safari Park you will visit a crocodile farm and snake park. The tour continues to PheZulu, a small traditional Zulu homestead, where you receive an informative talk about the Zulu traditions and culture and are entertained with some enthralling tribal singing and dancing. This tour will give you a comprehensive overview of the Zulu culture and a spectacular mix of affluent residential areas and traditional rural homesteads.

HOTEL INFORMATION

Reservations

Hotel accommodation can be reserved in Durban through Turners Conferences who have secured preferred rates for participants. All rates quoted on the hotel booking form are in South African Rands and are per room and per night, breakfast and service taxes included. The hotel category should be indicated on the hotel booking form. Please also indicate which other category we should book in case the chosen one is fully booked. Please note most of the hotels are close proximity to the Durban International Convention Centre.

Confirmation of Hotel Reservation

All hotel reservations will be confirmed to you in writing with the name of the hotel, the type of accommodation booked, the arrival and departure dates, the rate, and the deposit required. This will be accompanied by an invoice and request for payment.

Payments

A deposit equal to two nights stay is required to secure the hotel booking. The balance of the accommodation is to be settled directly with the hotel upon your arrival. The deposit may be paid either by bank transfer or by MasterCard, Visa, American Express or Diners Club credit card. Full details appear on the booking form.

Changes and Cancellations

Cancellations must be submitted to Turners Conferences in writing. You may cancel your reservation up to 26 June 2013 with a full refund of your deposit paid less an administration fee of ZAR228.00.

Reservations cancelled after the 26 June 2013 will attract the following cancellation penalties:

1. 59 – 31 Days: 50% Cancellation fees apply
2. 30 – 0 Days: 100% Cancellation fees apply

An amendment fee of ZAR228.00 applies to all changes made to confirmed reservations.

If you reduce the length of your stay upon arrival at the hotel, the hotel reserves the right to charge cancellation fees for the nights that you will no longer be using.
